

TEACHERS' SCHOLARSHIPS

Davidson County Board of Commissioners' Chair Fred McClure has announced that applications for Davidson County Teaching Scholarships will be accepted September 1st through November 15th, 2023. Applications for these scholarships are available to college students who have lived in Davidson County for six years prior to entering college and have graduated from a high school, private school, or home school. Applicants must be accepted into or enrolled in and attending a post-secondary institution at the time the scholarship is awarded and have at least a 2.8 GPA and will be required to obtain a North Carolina teaching certification by the beginning of the school year following the senior year of college. Scholarships are for $5,000 each and require a three-year contract either with one of the three school systems located in Davidson County or an approved private school located in Davidson County. Applications and guidelines for the scholarships have been made available at the local high schools and colleges in the Davidson County area, Chambers of Commerce, and the Davidson County Manager's Office and the Internet at www.co.davidson.nc.us.

Deborah J. Harris, Teaching Scholarship Administrator
Davidson County Manager's Office
Governmental Center, 913 Greensboro Street
Lexington, NC 27292 Phone: 336-242-2202